

Concerning the proposed changes to radio stations: We are happy with our Christian radio stations the way they are! New intrusive measures seem to be unwarranted and potentially dangerous to our First Amendment rights (i.e., freedom of speech and freedom of religion). Please do not jeopardize the “faith on the airways” with these changes.